EVENT DETAILS

It's not about being right or wrong, rather, it's about how much money you make when you're right and how much you don't lose when you're wrong
- George Soros

If you think you possess the skills and the gumption to ride over jaw dropping volatility and make a killing on the bourses – we give you the platform and the stage – to announce your arrival as the next George Soros on the street. Backwaters in association with X Trade Brokers (XTB) present Pips 'n' Profits, the ultimate international trading simulation event - the most comprehensive trading simulation contest you would have ever experienced! Trade in virtually every instrument that exists on the bourses - currency, commodities, equities, indices, and futures across major world stock and commodity markets, on real time quotes. Trade on XTB's celebrated trading platform used by millions of professional traders and hundreds of corporate clients across the world. You can trade 24 hours a day for one full trading week.

Gear up with your research, get those technicals out of the book, stick your neck out, keep those stop losses ready and make the best out of volatile markets.

Event Rules and Regulations

- This is an individual event. Only one member per team.
- The event is online and will last for one full trading week, 14th - 18th Nov 2011
- There will be a practice round for two days from 10th-11th Nov 2011 for participants to get acclimatized to the trading platform. The practice round's portfolio value is inconsequential for the final standings.
- The event is declared open to all currently enrolled college students in any bachelor or masters/post-graduate degrees across the world.
- Participants should possess a valid college identity card.
- Login information will be made available to registered participants only.
- The XTB trading platform would be browser based and can be used with any browser and any operating system. Real time market prices will be used.
- Based on change in portfolio value at the end of each day a daily winner will be announced.
- EOD timings for the trading days are listed out separately.
- Based on the portfolio value at the end of 5 days final winners will be announced.
- The Terms and Conditions of participation are subject to change at any time without specific notice. The amended Terms and Conditions of entry will be effective immediately upon being posted on the website. It is the sole responsibility of the teams to regularly visit the Website to read any changes.
